Bowling Green to Test Murray Offense Here

Friday Night's Game Finds Tiger Offense Renowned

When Bowling Green High's Purples start their annual battle against Murray High tomorrow night, at 7:30 here, they'll be the first team that will test Coach Preston Holland's renovated offense—brought about by injuries and necessity.

All this week, Coaches Holland and Russell have been pondering how to get a more powerful running game worked out, now that it is definite that Boggs, Farmer, and Parker are all through for the season. In a last-minute effort to retain Clayton Williams' running ability at left half back, and at the same time to get drive from the fullback post, Buist Scott, fast 170-pound guard, has been shifted to the driving position in the backfield, and clever Tommy Cable, ace defensive reserve, will be at Scott's vacated guard position.

Scott, the fastest man on the Murray squad, showed up well in practice scrimmage during this week, and it looks as if Holland might have pulled an ace out of his sleeve. Just how well it will work remains for him to find out against Doug Smith's Purples.

In speaking of the loss of three of his first-class backs, which are all incidentally seniors, Holland-beamed the fact that the team was just beginning to come into their own as finished backs, when injuries struck both Parker and Boggs down. As far as the Tigers are concerned, the Farmer case is a closed book.

The Purples, beaten only by Glasgow and Hopkinsville, have a powerful outfit, with a hard-driving fullback and an elusive tailback. In the games scouted by Holland and Russell, the Warren Countians have a very good passing attack, and Murray may encounter difficulty in defending against it.

A temporary leg injury has forced Earl Cunningham to relinquish his left end post to Palmer Outland for this week. Outland, who has looked as if he is in for a long stay in the hospital, has been called in for replacement, should Murray's offensive power, but will weaken its defense considerably, as he is smaller, and less experienced.

Coach Holland said he regarded the game with the Purples as a test-up with the team getting the making the breaks getting the ball game. He promised Murray fans, however, that the game will really provide an acid test for the Tigers. It was thought that the Mayfield game would show just how good the boys would be against good competition, but the Redbirds didn't live up to their advance reputation. The Fulton game was a direct result of a let-down after the Cardinal game, and Holland is anxious to see if his boys can get back "up" again.

Campaign Office Loaned by Stokes

Democratic campaign headquarters have been opened on the second floor of the Peoples Savings Bank, with the office and office furniture being furnished through the courtesy of T. L. Stokes and the trustees of the Peoples Bank. Two large rooms, with lights, and water, and furnished with a table and plenty of chairs, comprise the offices from which the Calloway County - for - Roosevelt will operate.

Already a large sign has been printed and erected over a downtown street. Campaign literature, buttons, and stickers will be available for use by the end of the week.

Mrs. Lovett To Head Demo Women

Mrs. Joe T. Lovett, prominent Murray civic leader, was appointed chairman of the Democratic Women of Calloway County by the state leader, Mrs. T. C. Carroll, this week.

Mrs. Lovett, who has been prominent in Women's Club activities and civic affairs, will serve in this capacity during the Roosevelt-for-a-third-term campaign.

T. Sledd To Head YBMC

T. Sledd was selected president of the Young Business Men's Club at the meeting last Monday night, succeeding H. C. Corn. Du Hal Houston was elected vice-president, and M. G. Forster, secretary. T. Waldrop was re-elected to the post of sergeant-at-arms.

In the midst of a campaign to raise the attendance at Murray College football games at home, the club reported progress in its scheduled program.

It plans to sponsor the Murray State-Arkansas University basketball tilt, here late in December.

COUNTY SCHOOLS TO HELP GET OUT VOTE ON NOV. 5

Contest to Give Schools Rewards for Aiding in Election

AWARDS TO BE MADE BY DEMO CAMPAIGN

Attorney Hall Hood, county chairman of the Democratic campaign for Roosevelt-for-a-third-term, announced this week that provisions had been made for an interesting and unique contest for the various county schools, allowing them to earn rewards, and at the same time, get the maximum Calloway County vote to the polls for the presidential election November 5.

The proposed plan will be in two groups—one for the seven county high schools, and one for the county rural grade schools. The prize for the high schools will be $50, Hood said, while the winning rural grade school will receive $25.

The plan is very simple, but will require the students to really be on their toes from now to election day. To the school getting out the greatest percentage of the registered vote in that magisterial district (each high school is in a separate district, the $50 awards will be made. The same will hold true in the case of the grade schools, counting the highest percentage of the registered vote, instead of the increase over the previous ballot, or any other similar plan.

In speaking of the plan, Hood said, "It is thought that this plan will appeal to the young people of the county who soon will be voters, and impress upon them the people's responsibilities which go with the privilege of voting."

REA Coop Adopts New Tenant Rate

Officials of West Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, operating in Calloway, Graves and Marshall Counties, announced adoption of special low rate minimum bill of $1.50 for low income users within 300 feet of existing lines. This rate is adopted to enable every person within reach to enjoy electric service.

A series of meetings are being planned throughout the project area by the project superintendent, explained. A less expensive method of wiring houses has also been devised, and many new members are expected to be added to the lines in the next few months.

Specialist To Give Tobacco Lectures

Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist from the University of Kentucky will give three lectures on harvesting and curing tobacco for Calloway County farmers, Wednesday, October 23, at 7:30 o'clock, at Elizabethtown, Tenn. In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, he will give the plant-bed demonstration at Chesley Adam's farm, on the Hall Road place. At 7:30 o'clock, he will speak on the curing and harvesting of tobacco.

Smith, a resident of Pineville, is making an attempt to take over the seat now being held by former Governor A. B. Chandler. Smith is also expected to bring out numerous issues, the content of the national at present concerning the presidential race.

TA Quarry Is New Source of Lime For Calloway Farmers

Calloway county farmers are now obtaining agricultural lime from the huge limestone quarry operated by TVA near Birmingham, Kentucky, and 11 farmers had placed orders with the Calloway County Soil Improvement Association at the county office by Wednesday morning for 170 tons of this material, according to an announcement made by County Agent Jno. T. Corn.

Farmers wanting lime from this source may get it immediately by placing an order at the county office, securing truck load tickets there, and hiring a trucker of their own choice, or using their own trucks, for the lime is 65¢ per ton, plus the cost of hauling it from the quarry to the farm. The 65¢ per ton must be paid to the Calloway County Soil Improvement Association at the county office before lime can be secured at the quarry by individual farmers or truckers. There is estimated to be some 60,000 to 80,000 tons of this material available now and there is no limit to the amount of lime that may be obtained by farmers.

Through the cooperative efforts of farm leaders, agricultural extension workers, and representatives of TVA plans have been under way for several months for screening and storing this by-product, and making it available to farmers throughout the several counties adjacent to the quarry. The lime has been screened through a ten mesh screen and tests show that it has a neutralizing value of 92 to 94%.

The first truck load of lime from this source to come to Calloway county was trucked by Robert Jones to the farm of H. T. Boyd near Faxon community. Conditions for loading and pulling out at the quarry are good and present plans "trucks may load out early morning until about dark, but until different plans are worked out at the quarry no lime can be loaded at the quarry on Saturday.

DEMO ORATORS TO SPEAK SATURDAY

Rally Scheduled For Mayfield Saturday With Tennessee Congressman Speaker

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17.—Kentucky Democrats will give audible proof that the presidential campaign is an earnest one, Saturday, when party orators will lose their calls for loyalty and support from the electoral college, and speak in eight of the nine of the state's congressional districts in the afternoon and evening.

In which a party rally will not be held, will be the third which includes Louisville and Jefferson Owensboro that night at 7:30 o'clock for a big rally to be held in Louisville later in the campaign.

The burden of the speaking engagement in the first congressional district will be borne by Governor Keen Johnson and Lieutenant Governor Rodes K. Myers. Each is billed to make an afternoon and evening address.

Only one out-of-state orator will perform on Saturday. This will be Representative Albert A. Gore of Carthage, Tenn., who represents the fourth congressional district of Tennessee.

Congressman Gore is scheduled to speak in the first congressional district at Mayfield on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and in the second congressional district at Owensboro that night at 7:30 o'clock. Congressman Gore will be presented to his first district audience by Congressman Noble J. Green of Paducah, who represents the fifth congressional district.

Governor Keen Johnson is scheduled to speak in the fourth and fifth congressional districts, speaking at Elizabethtown at 7:30 o'clock, and at Williamstown at 7:30 o'clock. At Elizabethtown, Governor Johnson will be joined by Representative Howell Forgy, resigning pastor at the time of the dinner, scheduled for tonight at 6 o'clock, will mark Forgy's final appearance in Murray, as he leaves Friday for Great Lakes, Ill., where he will be stationed as Naval Chaplain for the time being.

Rev. Harrington comes to Murray from Stillwater, Oklahoma, where he served as pastor of student work at Oklahoma A&M. He is a graduate of Princeton, Union, and Pennsylvania Universities.

SCOUTERS PLAN WORK FOR HAPPY VALLEY DISTRICT

C. M. Graham Is Chief of Happy Valley District Boy Scouts

DISTRICT COURT TO BE HELD HERE DEC. 9TH

Executives of the Happy Valley District of the Boy Scouts of America, of which the Murray troop is affiliated, met at Smithland Monday night to complete the work of the new district set up for the current year. The meeting was held in the recreation room of the First Methodist church at which time a delicious and bountiful banquet dinner was served and was followed immediately with the business session.

Representatives from Benton, Gilbertsville, Murray and Smithland were present. The Murray delegation was composed of Prof. Carmon Graham, chairman of the district committee; Wilby Berry, district commissioner and chairman of organization and extension; Dr. O. C. Wells, chairman of advancement committee; Harry L. Slodd, chairman, and Maurice Crass, camping committee; Dr. Fount Russell, chairman physical education; Max B. Hurt, chairman, and Prof. E. B. Howton, leadership and training; and Ralph Wear, Murray Scoutmaster.

Chairman Carmon Graham presided over the meeting. The minutes were read and approved, old and new business was completed, and then Scout Executive Roy C. Manchester, Paducah, and Paul Sudlow, field executive, gave the general outline of the proposed program for the Happy Valley District. Members of each committee assembled and formulated plans for their specific group after which the various departments presented their plans to the general assembly for discussion and approval.

It was disclosed at the meeting that the next district meeting would be held in Murray on the first Monday night in December and on the invitation of Scoutmaster Ralph Wear, the first District Court of Honor would be held in Murray December 9, with the Murray Troop as hostess for the event.

All Scouts of the Happy Valley District who are officially registered for advancement will be recognized at the Court of Honor in December. Scoutmaster Wear said this morning, "It will be our intention to present a model Court of Honor at this time to acquaint the Scouts and Scouters of this district with this particular phase of scouting." Dr. Wells, chairman of advancement, said.

1993 Are Registered For Draft In Calloway County And Eligible Here

"We Girls" Contains Amusing Situation; To Be Given Nov. 1 by Sock and Buskin

"Once upon a time" but then stories have begun with that phrase for years—it isn't new. Neither is the story of a lady who doesn't want to grow old a new story in the feminine world. However, it usually doesn't turn out so funny, as does the plot of the play, "We Girls" which will be presented in the college auditorium November 1, at 8:14 by the Sock and Buskin Dramatic Club.

Mrs. Durand, the woman, played by Emma Sue Gibson, finds that she possesses everything her heart desires—money and all sorts of luxuries including three suitors, Jack Bullis as her youngest lover, Frank Shires as her middle age lover and Bob Arnold as her oldest lover. To these lovers, she is the first Sock and Buskin play of the year.

But added to these numerous attractions, she finds she has three suitors, she doesn't want her daughter, Harry, (Betty Phillips), her long lost brother, Samuel Welch, (Bob Evans), and the policeman who always comes unexpectedly, Bill Wilson—three causing an unlimited amount of trouble for the young beauty.

Only a play could unravel such a human situation and still be a comedy for two hours. It's the first Sock and Buskin play of the year.

Merchandise Offer Attracts Ledger & Times Subscribers

Continuing into the third week of its subscription drive, many persons of Murray and Calloway County continued to take advantage of the offer whereby they may subscribe to the Ledger & Times and at the same time receive a merchandise certificate good at Murray stores and firms that happen to be on the list which changes each week.

The offer is simple, and has been explained before, but to keep the clear picture of this amazing offer before the public eye, we repeat it.

For every $1.00 paid on a renewal subscription to the Ledger & Times we give a merchandise certificate that is good for 40¢ in trade at any of the firms listed on the front page. For each new subscription, the subscriber receives a merchandise certificate for $1.00. These certificates are just as good as cash at any of the stores which they are issued upon, and the Ledger & Times redeems them in cash.

So check up today. If your subscription label has any date earlier than October 1940, how about renewing it and renewing your subscription and take advantage of this offer. If your subscription is out sometime next year, you may renew it and renew it, pay up for as many years as you wish for $1.00 per year, and receive merchandise certificates on each dollar paid on a subscription.

If for some reason you have never subscribed to the Ledger & Times, you can do it now and get the same big offer. How about trying it now?

Local Newspaper's Injunction Dissolved By Judge Ira Smith

A temporary injunction preventing the College News from soliciting advertising was dissolved Monday morning in Hopkinsville by Circuit Judge Ira D. Smith, after he had the facts presented him by both the plaintiff, The West Kentuckian, and the defendant, College News.

Early last week the West Kentuckian secured an injunction in the form of a restraining order, preventing the College News from soliciting advertising until the case could be brought up in civil courts. Charles Jennings acting as plaintiff, contended that by the solicitation of advertising, the state was competing with private business.

After dissolving the restraining order, Judge Smith told Jennings and his attorney, Nat Ryan Hughes, that if they deemed it advisable the case would come up in the November term of court, if charges were still preferred.

John Smith Dies Here Wednesday

John Smith, 78, died of hemorrhage of the brain at his home in Murray here Wednesday morning. He had been in bad health for a long time.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Hattie Clanton and Mrs. Lottie Farris. Funeral services were conducted in the Church Hill Funeral Home early today by Elder J. R. Scott, with burial in the Foster Graveyard.

Two homemakers' clubs in Campbell county chartered buses for educational tours in Cincinnati. They visited pottery works, clothing factories, and other interesting places. The tour was led by Mrs. Edna M. Pherson, a specialist in saving, Charles Baugh.

OVER 16,500,000 MEN ARE LISTED IN U. S. DEFENSE MOVE

Early Rush Thins Out Here As Many Who Register Are Eligible Elsewhere

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL LAUNCHES BIG DRIVE

Exactly 1993 men between the ages of 21-35 inclusive were registered in Calloway County yesterday for service in this country. Many others were registered but their cards will be sent to other draft boards in other sections of the country, Mrs. Mary Russell Williams said.

Over 16,500,000 men were registered sometime yesterday from the time 7 a. m. hit the east coast until it was 9 o'clock, Pacific time. Many registered with draft boards foreign boards, it was revealed.

Mrs. Williams said she expected many more cards to be sent into Calloway County from draft boards throughout the nation with Calloway Countians' signatures. She said that the draft board, to be appointed by Gov. Keen Johnson and approved by President Roosevelt, would be Local Board No. 20, Kentucky, and that Calloway would be a unit within itself.

The great roll call went smoothly enough. There were little hitches here and there, but they did not seriously impede the enormous task. It went calmly, without hysteria or uproar. Where the registrar happened to be a pretty young school mistress, there were tendencies to wisecrack when she asked for telephone numbers.

Every man of the proper age was called upon to register—whether he might be a Lascar on a freighter tied up at New York, or lame, or blind, or deaf, and dumb, or alien, naturalized, or native born, rich or poor, a movie star or a café boy. The only exceptions were those persons already in the armed forces of some war associated with them, or otherwise on a stringently exempt list.

An hour after registration began President Roosevelt went down into the basement of the White House and told the registrants they were being called to protect peace and democracy against "those who dared to threaten the whole world with war."

Twenty-Six Kentuckians Await Appointments As Flying Cadets

Hog Growers Were Helped by Chains

"National Economy Pork Sale" in Spring Brought Higher Prices to Producers

National consumption of pork was increased 25% over the corresponding period in 1939 and 41% more than the five year average for the months of February, March and April as a result of the "National Economy Pork Sale" last spring, according to the report of results of this "Producer-Consumer Campaign" just released by the National Association of Food Chains. Chain store sales of pork and pork products increased 38% over 1939 and 75% over the preceding 5-year average for these months.

The early market for hogs was prevented from crashing through the bottom and hog prices actually rose during April. Other livestock prices were maintained steady to higher and the lost pork market was recaptured. The drive for increased consumption of pork was put on by chain stores and other retailers at the request of the National Swine Growers Association and other producers when prices for hogs to the grower had declined below production costs.

The backbone of the promotion campaign was newspaper advertising with 8,000 newspapers carrying the message of special values in pork to more than 25,000,000 readers.

Kentucky took a prominent role in the campaign, according to the Kentucky Chain Stores Council. Kentucky newspapers were used in advertising the "National Pork Economy Sale" and were generous in their contributions of news and editorial space in this successful effort to help the farmer. Miss Florence Inlay, extension specialist in Foods and Nutrition, Kentucky Extension Service, rendered a great service in developing community programs throughout the state to encourage increased consumption of pork.

Bulletins issued by the Kentucky Chain Stores Council and clipping from Kentucky newspapers were used in the final report of Results by the National Association of Food Chains as typical of initiative in states and local communities to create interest which resulted in greater consumption of pork.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, October 13, 1940

At the morning worship hour, 10:30 o'clock, the pastor will preach on "Room for all in the work of the Lord," from the text: "Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive." Matt. 20:7. Occasionally some one will say to a pastor, "I wish I had something to do in the church." Every pastor has more jobs than he has capable and consecrated teachers. The world and the church are in the watch for folks who will do the task. Look round you and you will find something to do if you want to do it.

Rev. C. N. Jolly, our district superintendent, will preach for us at the evening hour, 7:30 o'clock. You will enjoy hearing Bro. Jolly. There will be the public installation of the officers of the Epworth League at 6:45, the regular hour of the league service.

Prof. L. R. Putnam will sing for us at the morning worship hour. The Sunday-school at 9:30 is a service for all members of the family and no household can afford to be without its helpful service. Miss Jase Melugin now has charge of the children from 8 to 13 years of age at the meetings of these young folks at 6:45.

Only five more Sundays till the meeting of the Memphis Annual Conference at Jackson, Tenn., on Wednesday night, November 13, when the 100th anniversary of the organization of the Memphis Conference will be observed. We have much to do as a church to be ready when that time comes, for we will have to fulfill all obligations for the year.

We cordially invite all visitors and strangers in Murray to meet with us in our regular services, assuring them of a brotherly attitude in all things that pertain to the church and to the kingdom of God.

The senior boys and girls' teams played Kirksey. The girls were defeated by Kirksey 21-13, while the boys of Hazel defeated the Kirksey 15-8.

Oaks school was honored by having as chapel speaker, Midshipman Delmus Hawks of the United States Navy. Not often are students privileged to hear such addresses, one felt almost as though a trip to the Far East had been taken.

Sort of an Abra ca dabra effect, as the speaker of customs, people, clothing, and food were so vividly pictured by the speaker in well chosen words. How we wish we could have more such speeches and less dry, state matter to absorb our time.

Don't forget the Golden Jubilee celebration to be held at Hazel, October 17. Excellent program, valuable prizes from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Don't fail to come as birthday parties are not available every day in the year.

Principal speaker of the morning is to be Dr. Will Mason. Athletic events, lunch, radio stars!

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A. V. Havens, Minister
Establishing Real Democracy.

Mr. Havens, minister of the First Christian Church, at the morning worship service, next Sunday. Referring to his subject, Mr. Havens said, "In presenting the nature and results of real democracy, one frequently hears the rejoinder, 'That is all very nice, but what are you going to get it?' Attempts to answer this question have been the basis of every revolution and every reform movement. Some have felt that it could be done by obtaining a certain form of governmental organization; others have championed certain economic arrangements such as Technocracy, cooperatives, and the Townsend plan."

"Jeremiah," Mr. Havens stated, "when confronted with this problem, turned his attention to something more fundamental than instruments and devices. The fundamental necessity will be presented in this sermon as the basis for the establishment of real democracy," said Mr. Havens.

The sermon will be the fourth in a series of sermons on "Religion and Democracy" which Mr. Havens is delivering as a contribution to the nation's defense effort. They have been planned to deal with matters which lie at the roots of any defense scheme. Their purpose is to inspire an understanding and appreciation of the democratic way and thus bolster national unity and resistance. Three more sermons in the series have been planned.

The beautiful organ prelude by Mrs. Francis Coleman Johnson will begin promptly at 10:30.

The Convocation of Jonah," will be the sermon subject at the Sunday night church service which will begin at 7:30.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will meet at 8:30 Sunday evening in the young people's parlor.

School, led by Superintendent R. L. Wade, will begin at 9:30 Sunday morning.

The Tea-Talk for all young people, will be held Wednesday night at 7 o'clock, at the home of the minister.

SPRING CREEK SCHOOL

There will be a pie supper at this school on Saturday night, October 6. Everyone is invited.

The honor roll for the third month is as follows:
Second grade, Wanda June Crouse and Jo Ann Greenfield; third grade, Annie Elizabeth Crouse; fourth grade, A. G. Donelson; fifth grade, Betty June Drinkard and Betty June Cunningham; seventh grade, Geneva Moody, Vester Crouse, and Charles Nanny.

Twenty-five miles of electric lines are being constructed in Rockcastle county.

LET'S AT LEAST HAVE ROADS

We are thankful for the small amount of black-top on the Concord road, even though it extends only to the Paris Bridge. This project was set up for last year, but failed to get through the campaign squeeze. This improved stretch of road is very nice but unless it has a seal coat it will not hold up, but probably the Maintenance Department will look after it.

The rest of the Concord road is delayed as they claim pending the agreement with the TVA on the change of location of the lower end where the flooded area will have to be relocated. However it seems that the part the Concord bridge should be surfaced now, but without contact with the Central office at Frankfort we are as out of luck as orphans in Calloway street. Our Representative cannot have gotten nothing in road improvement that was not set up under the Chandler administration.

and much of that incomplete. No Rural Projects have been completed. The Almo road, two years without bridges, is a great handicap to the school buses; the Well and Crossland road, a high grade road without bridges, having in each case to ford creeks and in rainy weather making it impossible for traffic to travel over it. This is an inexcusable condition. Three times they have made estimates of the cost of these small bridges indicating that they would be built, but yet nothing has been done.

We had hoped with a little closer cooperation of the WPA and RHW that we would make more progress, but as yet not a single project, of either department, has been completed, working on many projects but completing none. They are like shoe without soles.

The contract for the construction of the north boundary street in Murray has been let and a few pieces of equipment have been brought in but it seems that the winter will come on and stop the job before completion.

Calloway County seems to be out of touch, and with no contact man. Our Representative cannot make any demands because he is employed as a foreman and is afraid or is without prestige. Our Senator is out of step with the Administration, so what can we do?

A new problem is soon to confront us. It is in the form of an excuse "that we are to have improved roads for military movements. This however, will divert all construction money to the few main roads. The Commissioner is ready to go to bat, so he is quoted in the newspapers. Of course this will continue the building of Super-Highways in certain sections acceptable to said sections at the neglect of many parts of the state. If the demand for Military roads are of such importance, then it is as much the job of the Federal Government (as it is to build roads or other preparedness projects) to build certain roads or to build certain bridges, and still hold down the truck loading, will do the general traffic no good.

It is time for the unimproved counties or those off the proposed military roads to get busy for their own protection and demand for county allotments in proportion to their local demands and an equitable share of state money.

I have for many years made a fight for local justice in road building as well as general road building. I have dared to criticize waste and incompetence in our road system. I do endorse the curtailment of expenses by Commissioner Donaldson, but to take all savings and all resources to certain localities to the disadvantage of some will not serve us well. Those claiming to have the ear of the centralized forces of this administration should make demands to better regulate the allocation of road funds. A member of either branch of the Legislature diminishes his power, if he has any, to represent his people when he accepts a minor job in the administration. A chairman of a campaign is satisfied when he gets a job or is given to use his prestige to give jobs to his personal advantage. A chairman of a campaign is the servant of his party if he is not a selfish individual. A member of the legislature is the servant of all his people, regardless of party if he serves well. If he tries to punish a member of another party or so called faction, he will nearly always punish a good neighbor who is a good man of his own party.

Check YOUR HOME For Needed Improvements

Old Father Time has a way of playing tricks on houses. You don't even realize time is passing until one day you notice that the walls of your rooms look shabby; or you visit a friend's new home and it suddenly occurs to you that your own home is no longer modern—because it hasn't up-to-date plumbing or wiring or heating. Or perhaps your home begins to seem a little cramped now that the children are growing up.

Well, here's a way to out-trick Father Time at his quiet little game... Check over your home and see what it needs to make it modern.

What repairs are needed where improvements would make it more livable—more efficient—more attractive?

Fix up your home this fall... right now. Even if you haven't ready cash, you can fix up your home on the FHA Plan with convenient monthly payments out of your income. Let us give you the details.

COAL! COAL! COAL!
Someone has told you about how many different veins of coal there are, No. 6, No. 9, No. 11, No. 14, etc., but not all No. 6 veins have the same burning qualities. Neither do any of the other veins. Some coals have more heat units, more or less ash, more or less clinker, but I try to sell you a coal that will give you the best heat, less ashes, less clinker at the lowest possible cost.
Some people say there is no difference in coal. But you might just as well say there is no difference in wood. Is gum wood as good as hickory wood?

Bowling Green to Test Murray Offense Here

Friday Night's Game Finds Tiger Offense Renovated

When Bowling Green High's Purples start their annual battle against Murray High tomorrow night, at 7:30, they'll be the first team that will test Coach Preston Holland's renovated offense—brought about by injuries and necessity.

All this week, Coaches Holland and Russell have been pondering how to get a more powerful running game worked out, now that it is definite that Boggs, Farmer and Parker are all through for the season. In a last-minute effort to retain Clayton Williams' running ability at left half back, and at the same time to get drive from the fullback post, Buist Scott, fast 170-pound guard, has been shifted to the driving position in the backfield, and clever Tommy Cable, ace defensive reserve, will be at Scott's vacated guard position.

Scott, the fastest man on the Murray squad, showed up well in practice scrimmage during this week, and it looks as if Holland might have pulled an ace out of his sleeve. Just how well it will work remains for him to find out against Doug Smith's Purples.

In speaking of the loss of three of his first-class backs, which are all incidentally seniors, Holland beamed the fact that at three were just beginning to come out of their own as finished backs, when injuries struck both Parker and Boggs down. As far as the Tigers are concerned, the Farmer case is a closed book.

The Purples, beaten only by Glasgow and Hopkinsville, have a powerful outfit, with a hard-driving fullback and an elusive tailback. In the games scouted by Holland and Russell, the Warren Countians have a very good passing attack, and Murray may encounter difficulty in defending against it.

A temporary leg injury has forced Boar Cunningham to relinquish his left end post to Palmer Outland for this week. Outland, who has looked like a real prospect, he has been called in for replacement, should aid Murray's offensive power, but will weaken its defense considerably, as he is smaller, and less experienced.

Coach Holland said he regarded the game with the Purples as a test-up with the team getting and making the breaks getting the ball game. He promised Murray fans, however, that the game will really provide an acid test for the Tigers. It was thought that the Mayfield game would show just how good the boys would be against good competition, but the Redbirds' live-up to their advance reputation. The Fulton game was a direct result of a let-down after the Cardinal clash, and Holland is anxious to see if his boys can get back "up" again.

Campaign Office Loaned by Stokes

Democratic campaign headquarters have been opened on the second floor of the Peoples Savings Bank, with the office and office furniture being furnished through the courtesy of H. H. Stokes and the trustees of the Peoples Bank.

Two large rooms, with lights and water, and furnished with a table and plenty of chairs comprise the offices from which the Calloway County - for - Roosevelt will operate.

Already a large sign has been printed and erected over a downtown street. Campaign literature, buttons, and stickers will be available for use by the end of the week.

Mrs. Lovett To Head Demo Women

Mrs. Joe T. Lovett, prominent Murray civic leader, was appointed chairman of the Democratic Women of Calloway County by the state leader, Mrs. T. C. Carroll, this week.

Mrs. Lovett, who has been prominent in Women's Club activities and civic affairs, will serve in this capacity during the Roosevelt-for-a-third-term campaign.

T. Sled To Head YBMC

T. Sled was selected president of the Young Business Men's Club, at the meeting last Monday night, succeeding H. C. Corn. Dr. Hal Housner was elected vice-president, and M. G. Forster, secretary. T. Waldrop was re-elected to the post of sergeant-at-arms.

In the midst of a campaign to raise the attendance at Murray College football games at home, the club reported progress in its scheduled program.

It plans to sponsor the Murray State-Arkansas University basketball tilt, here late in December.

COUNTY SCHOOLS TO HELP GET OUT VOTE ON NOV. 5

Contest to Give Schools Rewards for Aiding in Election

AWARDS TO BE MADE BY DEMO CAMPAIGN

Attorney Hall Hood, county chairman of the Democratic campaign for Roosevelt-for-a-third-term, announced this week that provisions had been made for an interesting and unique contest for the various county schools, allowing them to earn rewards, and at the same time, get the maximum Calloway County vote to the polls for the presidential election November 5.

The proposed plan will be in two groups—one for the seven county high schools, and one for the county rural grade schools. The prize for the high schools will be $50, Hood said, while the winning rural grade school will receive $25.

The plan is very simple, but will require the students to really be on their toes from now to election day. To the school getting out the greatest percentage of the registered vote in that magisterial district (each high school is in a separate district), the $50 award will be made. The same will hold true in the case of the grade schools, counting the highest percentage of the registered vote, instead of the increase over the previous ballot, or any other similar plan.

In speaking of the plan, Hood said, "It is thought that this plan will appeal to the young people of the county who soon will be voters, and impress upon them the responsibilities which go with the privilege of voting."

REA Coop Adopts New Tenant Rate

Officials of West Kentucky Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, operating in Calloway, Graves and Marshall Counties, announced adoption of a special minimum bill of $1.50 for low income users within 300 feet of existing lines. This rate is adopted to enable every person within reach to enjoy electric service.

A series of meetings are being planned throughout the project area by the project superintendent, wherein the plan will be thoroughly explained. A less expensive method of wiring houses has also been devised, and many new members are expected to be added to the lines in the next few months.

Specialist To Give Tobacco Lectures

Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist from the University of Kentucky will give both a demonstration and a lecture on harvesting and curing tobacco for Calloway County farmers, Wednesday, October 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, he will give the plant-bent demonstration at Chesley Adam's farm, on the Hall Hood place. At 7:30 p.m. in the evening in the Training School, he will speak on the curing and harvesting of tobacco.

Masons To Meet

Peter Kuhn, Master Mason, announced that there would be a called meeting of the Murray Lodge Number 105, F. & A. M., Saturday, October 19, at 7:30 o'clock, with work in E. A. Degees scheduled.

Smith To Speak In Murray Friday

Walter B. Smith, candidate for the United States Senate on the Republican ticket, will speak in Murray, at 9 o'clock Friday morning, October 19, at the Training School. Republican committeemen in Calloway County announced today.

Smith, a resident of Pineville, is under the seal now being held by former Governor A. B. Chandler. Smith is also expected to bring out numerous issues, and confront the national at present concerning the presidential race.

TVA Quarry Is New Source of Lime For Calloway Farmers

Calloway county farmers are now obtaining agricultural lime from the huge limestone quarry operated by TVA near Birmingham, Kentucky, and 11 farmers had placed orders with the Calloway County Soil Improvement Association at the county office by Wednesday morning for 170 tons of this material, according to an announcement made by County Agent Jno. T. Cochran.

Farmers wanting lime from this source may get it immediately by placing an order at the county office, securing truck load tickets there, and hiring a trucker of their own choice, or using their own trucks, for the lime to be delivered. The cost of the lime is 65¢ per ton, plus the cost of hauling it from the quarry to the farm. The 65¢ per ton must be paid to the Calloway County Soil Improvement Association at the county office before lime can be secured at the quarry by individual farmers or truckers. There is estimated to be some 60,000 to 80,000 tons of this material available now and there is no limit to the amount of lime that may be obtained by farmers.

Through the cooperative efforts of farm leaders, agricultural extension workers, and representatives of TVA plans have been underway for several months for screening and storing this by-product and making it available to farmers throughout the several counties adjacent to the quarry. The lime has been screened through a ten mesh screen and tests show that it has a neutralizing value of 92% to 94%.

The first truck load of lime from this source to come to Calloway county was trucked by Robert Jones to the farm of H. T. Boyd near Faxon community. Conditions for loading and pulling out of the quarry are good and under present plans truckers may load from early morning until about dark, but until different plans are worked out at the quarry no lime can be loaded at the quarry on Saturday.

Carter Named Grand Warden

Murray Mason Is In Line For Grand Master of Kentucky Lodges in 1942

W. Z. Carter, Murray, was named Grand Senior Warden at the state convention of Free and Accepted Masonry, in Louisville, this week, and is in line for the Grand Master of the state in 1942. He is a member of the Murray Lodge No. 105.

Charles A. Keith, educator from Eastern State Teachers College and a member of Lodge 25 in Richmond, was named Grand Master; Obie Fields, of Paducah Lodge 127, was named Deputy Grand Master; while A. B. Beatty, of Lodge 213, Beattyville, was named Grand Junior Warden.

Those attending from Calloway County were R. H. Robinson, of Cotham, Barney Weems, Charles Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kuhn, Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Carter, W. E. Clark, C. H. Roberts, and of Murray, Charles Denham, Hazel, and Lloyd Grogan and Homer Radford, of Temple Hill.

They returned late Wednesday night.

DEMO ORATORS TO SPEAK SATURDAY

Rally Scheduled For Mayfield Saturday With Tennessee Congressman Speaker

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17.—Kentucky Democrats will give audible proof that the presidential campaign is on in earnest in Kentucky, Saturday when party orators will loosen their calls for loyalty and support from the election.

The only congressional district in which a party rally will not be held, will be the third which includes Louisville and Jefferson counties. That night at 7:30 o'clock a big rally will be held in Louisville later in the campaign.

The burden of the speaking engagement is on in earnest in Kentucky, Saturday when party orators will loosen their calls for loyalty and support from the election.

Only one out-of-state orator will perform on Saturday. This will be Congressman Albert A. Gore of Carthage, Tenn., who represents the fourth congressional district of Tennessee.

Congressman Gore is scheduled to speak in the first congressional district at Mayfield on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock and in the second congressional district at Owensboro that night at 7:30 o'clock. Congressman Gore will be presented to his first district audience by Congressman Noy J. Gregory, Governor Rodes K. Myers will appear in the sixth and ninth districts. At 1:30 o'clock, he will speak in London and at 7:30 o'clock at Paducah. At 7:30 o'clock at Paducah, he will be joined by Bert Rowland of Corbin, Democratic Nominee for Congress in the ninth district. Congressman Gore will be unable to participate in the sixth district meeting owing to the stress of duties as campaign chairman of the Democratic congressional organization.

Meetings in the seventh and eighth congressional districts, have been scheduled for Hazard and Morehead. Congressman A. J. May will address the Hazard meeting at 3 o'clock. A speaker and the time for the Morehead meeting will be announced later.

Congressman Gore, of Tennessee, the first speaker from another state to be sent into Kentucky by the Democratic National committee, who will open the party's campaign in the first and second districts comes to Kentucky with an established reputation as an orator. Congressman Gore is a protégé of Cordell Hull, Secretary of State and is a close personal friend of the Hull family.

Congressman Gore was prominent in the political spotlight of the recent national Democratic convention in Chicago, where he was the personal representative of Secretary of State Hull to halt any organized drive that might have developed to place Secretary Hull in nomination for either the presidential or vice presidential nomination.

Democratic state campaign headquarters announced that the services of Senator Albert W. Barkley as a speaker, will not be available until the closing days of the campaign. Congressmen and Senators A. B. "Happy" Chandler will be able to make at least one radio speech before the campaign comes to an end. Senator Chandler recently underwent an operation for a appendicitis. His condition is reported satisfactory though he will be unable to take an active part in the present campaign.

SCOUTERS PLAN WORK FOR HAPPY VALLEY DISTRICT

C. M. Graham Is Chief of Happy Valley District Boy Scouts

DISTRICT COURT TO BE HELD HERE DEC. 9TH

Executives of the Happy Valley District of the Boy Scouts of America, of which the Murray troop is affiliated, met at Smithland Monday night to complete the work of the new district set up for the current year. The meeting was held in the recreation room of the First Methodist church at Smithland, a delectable and bountiful banquet dinner was served and was followed immediately with the business session.

Representatives from Benton, Gilbertsville, Murray and Smithland were present. The Murray delegation was composed of Prof. Carmon Graham, chairman of the district committee; Wilby Berry, district commissioner and chairman of organization and extension; Dr. O. C. Wells, chairman of advancement committee; Harry J. Sled, chairman, and Maurice Crass, camping committee; Dr. Fount Russell, chairman physical education; and Dr. J. B. H. Howton, training and; and Ralph Wear, Murray Scoutmaster.

Chairman Carmon Graham presided over the meeting. The minutes were read and approved, and then Scout Executive Roy C. Manchester, Paducah, Ky., gave the general outline of the proposed program for the Happy Valley District. Members of each committee assembled and formulated plans for their specific group after which the various departments presented their plans to the general assembly for discussion and approval.

It was disclosed at the meeting that the next district meeting would be held in Murray on the first Monday night in December and in the invitation of Scoutmaster Ralph Wear, the first District Court of Honor would be held in Murray December 9, with the Murray troop as hosts for the event.

All Scouts of the Happy Valley District who are officially registered for advancement will be recognized at the Court of Honor on December 9. Scoutmaster Wear said this morning, "It will be our intention to present a model Court of Honor at this time to acknowledge the achievements of the district with this particular phase of scouting," Dr. Wells, chairman of advancement, said.

Fifty Scouts were present for the Smithland meeting.

Harring Will Be Feted Tonight

Rev. Leon Harring, recently accepted pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of Murray, will be honored tonight at a well-attended dinner at the Presbyterian Church, on Main at Sixteenth Street, Rev. Howell Forgy, resigning pastor of the church, will preside. The dinner, scheduled for tonight at 6 o'clock, will mark Forgy's final appearance in Murray, as he leaves Friday for Great Lakes, Ill., where he will be stationed as Naval Chaplain for the time being.

Rev. Harring comes to Murray from Stillwater, Oklahoma, where he served as pastor of student work at Oklahoma A&M. He is a graduate of Princeton, Union, and Pennsylvania Universities.

Singing Is Set for October 27

John Key, president, announced early this week that the annual Big Sing, a well-attended dinner, will be held at the Court House in Murray, Sunday, October 27, at 1 o'clock.

This new arrangement of having semi-annual programs, one each in the spring and fall, has met with approval from many, and a large crowd is expected for this fall meeting.

Mr. Key urged all to bring their songbooks and take part in the singing.

Russell Speaks To Local Lions In Luncheon Meet

Chris Russell, Governor of Lions Clubs in the Kentucky district, addressed the local Lions organization at a luncheon meeting yesterday, discussing the "Values of Lions to Contemporary Society."

He was introduced by W. J. Caplinger, superintendent of the Murray city school system, who was Russell's former professor in school.

comes to an end. Senator Chandler recently underwent an operation for a appendicitis. His condition is reported satisfactory though he will be unable to take an active part in the present campaign.

1993 Are Registered For Draft In Calloway County And Eligible Here

"We Girls" Contains Amusing Situation; To Be Given Nov. 1 by Sock and Buskin

"Once upon a time" but then stories have begun with that phrase for years—it isn't new. Neither is the story of a lady who doesn't want to grow old a new story in the feminine world. However, it usually doesn't turn out so funny, as does the plot of the play, "We Girls" which will be presented in the college auditorium November 1, at 8:14 by the Sock and Buskin Dramatic Club.

Mrs. Durand, the woman, played by Emma Sue Gibson, finds that she possesses everything her heart desires—money and all sorts of luxuries including three suitors, Jack Bullis as her youngest lover, Frank Shires as her middle age lover and Bob Arnold as her oldest lover. To these lovers, she has the luxury of possessing three household servants and her family physician. These characters are played by Maxine Pybas, Jean Hicks, Max Scott and Mose Stiggle. She also has society friends who visit at the wrong time. These are Mrs. Embree and Mrs. Warrough played by Clara Isham and Josephine Crawford.

But added to these numerous attractions, she finds she has three daughters, Harry, (Betty Phillips), her long lost brother, Samuel Welch, (Bob Evans) and the policeman who always comes unexpectedly, Bill Wilson—three three causing an unlimited amount of trouble for the Dame Beautiful.

Only a play could unravel such a human situation and still be a comedy for two hours.

Its first Sock and Buskin play of the year.

Merchandise Offer Attracts Ledger & Times Subscribers

Continuing into the third week of its subscription drive, many persons of Murray and Calloway County continued to take advantage of the offer whereby they may subscribe to the Ledger & Times and at the same time receive a merchandise certificate good at Murray stores and firms that happen to be on the list which changes each week.

The offer is simple, and has been explained before, but to keep the clear picture of this amazing offer before the public eye, we repeat it.

For every $1.00 paid on a renewal subscription to the Ledger & Times we give a merchandise certificate that is good for 40¢ in trade at any of the firms listed on the front page. For each new subscription, the subscriber receives a 50¢ merchandise certificate. These certificates are just as good as cash at any of the stores which they are issued upon, and the Ledger & Times redeems them in cash.

So check up today. If your subscription label has any date earlier than October 1940, how about coming in and renewing your subscription and take advantage of this offer. If your subscription is not sometime next year, you may come in and renew it, pay up for as many years as you wish for $1.00 per year, and receive merchandise certificates each dollar paid on a subscription.

If for some reason you have never subscribed to the Ledger & Times you can do so now, and get in on this big offer. How about trying it now?

Local Newspaper's Injunction Dissolved By Judge Ira Smith

A temporary injunction preventing the College News from soliciting advertising was dissolved Monday morning in Hopkinsville by Circuit Judge Ira D. Smith, after he had the facts presented him by both the plaintiff, The West Kentuckian, and the defendant.

Early last week the West Kentuckian secured an injunction in the form of a restraining order preventing the College News from soliciting advertising until the case could be brought up in civil court. Charles Jennings acting as plaintiff, contended that by the solicitation of advertising, the state was competing with private business.

After dissolving the restraining order, Judge Smith told Jennings and his attorney, Nat Ryan Hughes, that if they deemed it advisable the case would come up in the November term of court, if charges were still preferred.

John Smith Dies Here Wednesday

John Smith, 78, died of hemorrhage of the brain at his home in Murray here Wednesday morning. He had been in bad health for a long time.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Hattie Clanton and Mrs. Lottie Farris. Funeral services were conducted in the Churchill Funeral Home early today by Elder J. R. Scott, with burial in the Foster Graveyard.

Two homemakers' clubs in Campbell county chartered buses for educational tours in Cincinnati. They visited pottery works, clothing factories, soap factories, radio stations, stores and other institutions.

OVER 16,500,000 MEN ARE LISTED IN U. S. DEFENSE MOVE

Early Rush Thins Out Here As Many Who Register Are Eligible Elsewhere

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL LAUNCHES BIG DRIVE

Exactly 1993 men between the ages of 21-35 inclusive were registered in Calloway County yesterday for service in this country. Many others were registered but their cards will be sent to other draft boards in other sections of the country, Mrs. Mary Russell Williams said.

Over 16,500,000 men were registered sometime yesterday from the time 7 a. m. hit the east coast until it was 9 o'clock, Pacific time. Many registers with draft boards throughout the nation with Calloway Countians' signatures. She said that the Draft Board, to be appointed by Gov. Keen Johnson and approved by President Roosevelt, would be Local Board No. 20, Kentucky, and that Calloway would be a unit within itself.

The great roll call went smoothly, and the registers were little hitches here and there, but they did not seriously impede the enormous task. It went calmly, too, without hysterical uproar. Where the registrar happened to be a pretty young school mistress, there were tendencies to wisecrack when she asked for telephone numbers.

Every man of the proper age was called upon to register—whether he might be a Lascar on a freighter tied up at New York, or lame, or blind, or deaf and dumb, or alien, naturalized, or native born, rich or poor, a movie star or a café boy, only exceptions were those persons already in the armed forces or somehow associated with them, or otherwise on a stringently exempted list.

An hour after registration began President Roosevelt went down into the basement of the White House and told the registrants they were being called to protect peace and democracy against "those who dared to threaten the whole world with war."

Twenty-six Kentuckians Await Appointments As Flying Cadets

Woman's Club Holds

Business Meeting

The Murray Woman's Club held its October business meeting Thursday afternoon at the club house with Mrs. Hall Hood presiding.

Reports from the district meeting at Princeton were heard, and Mrs. Joe T. Lovett read the clever jingles which she used in her response to the welcome address at that time.

Mrs. Hood expressed her appreciation for the splendid cooperation of the members in making the dedication program and the hobby show the great success they were.

Mrs. J. B. De Jarnatt of Louisville and Mrs. R. R. McGavern entertained with several lovely piano numbers.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Club Meets Friday Afternoon

Mrs. Vernon Stubbfield, Jr., was hostess Friday afternoon to members of her bridge club and additional guests, Mrs. F. W. Ordway.

The prize for high score was won by Mrs. H. L. Siedd and low score by Mrs. Ordway.

A delightful salad plate was served at the conclusion of the game.

Visitors Are Complimented

Miss Gracie Nell Jones had guests for bridge at her home Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eisinger of Washington, D. C. The decorations in the rooms, tallies and refreshments cleverly repeated the ship motif in honor of Columbus Day.

High score prizes were won by Miss Jane Melugin and Maurice Ryan, and the honorees were presented gifts from the hostess.

Included in the hospitality were

Mr. and Mrs. Eisinger, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Frank Kirk, Misses Jane Melugin, Mary Martha Overby, and Kathleen Robertson, and Edwin Thurman.

Ruth Elaine

to

Mr. James Moody Hobbs

Sunday, October the fifteenth

One thousand nine hundred forty

Murray, Kentucky

At Home

Ritz Apartments

Elizabethtown, Kentucky

The marriage was solemnized

Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S.

Lowry in the presence of a few close friends and relatives. The Rev. A. V. Havens read the single ring ceremony in the living room

before an improvised altar of ferns, ivy and chrysanthemums, with tall tapers burning on the mantel. The nuptial music was played by Mrs.

Joe Garton who used the traditional wedding marches, and "O Promise Me" and "Liebestraum" during the ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Clara Crawford, and the best man was James Alvey of Elizabethtown, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mrs. Hobbs chose for her wedding an afternoon frock of solid blue crepe with black accessories and a corsage of Better Times roses. Miss Crawford wore a black afternoon frock with corsage of yellow roses.

An informal reception was held following the ceremony. A yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the dining room which was beautifully decorated with gift bouquets from Mr. and Mrs. T. Crawford. The dining table was covered with a white embroidered cloth. The beautifully embossed wedding cake encircled with white sweet peas and ivy and flanked with burning tapers made the attractive centerpiece.

Later in the evening the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home at Elizabethtown. Mrs. Hobbs, who has been teaching at Glendale, Ky., formerly made her home at Lynn Grove, but recently the family has resided in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alvey, the latter a sister of the groom, of Elizabethtown, were out-of-town guests for the wedding.

FSA Aids Tenants And Farm Owners

The Farm Security Administration is a U. S. Government Agency which loans to tenants and needy farm owners who cannot get satisfactory loans from other sources. It also seeks to improve tenant-landlord arrangements in such a way that it will help both the tenant and the landlord.

Farm and Home plans are worked out for each prospective borrower by the Farm and the Home Management Supervisor. Loans are generally made from one to five years depending upon the borrower's ability to pay. Tenant Purchase Loans, however, are made for longer periods of time.

Each loan is supervised by trained supervisors from the time the loan is made until it is paid off in full. The borrower gives as security a mortgage on chattels and crops. Money is loaned for seed, fertilizer, lime, teams, tools, cows, and growing calves. Each borrower must be willing to accept supervision and carry out improved farm and home practices as worked out in their plans.

In Calloway County, which is designated as a Tenant Purchase County, farm purchase loans are made to tenants, farm laborers, sharecroppers, and other individuals who are farming or have been farming and who obtain the major portion of their income from farming operations.

In order to secure Tenant Purchase Loans, all applicants must be married and have in his possession enough farm equipment and livestock to carry on successfully farm operations.

Information concerning loans may be secured from a representative of the Farm Security Administration at the County Agent's Office in Murray on any Monday morning, or at the Farm Security Office, which is open every week day and is located in the Court House in Benton, Ky.

Eggs Are Going Up

A dollar a dozen for eggs is almost an unheard-of price, yet some farmer or poultryman in this community is going to get that price, according to Raleigh Kelley, manager of the Murray Hatchery.

Here is how this unusual price is being made possible. Mr. Kelley has arranged a novel egg-laying demonstration in his feed store.

Eight pullets from eight different poultry flocks in this community have been placed in an egg-laying battery and the pullet that lays the most eggs between October 1 and December 9, inclusive, will earn $1.00 per dozen for her owner.

Many folks have never had an opportunity to see an egg-laying battery in which hens are kept in wire cages all of the time. This is a demonstration of a new and successful way of caring for large numbers of birds in a small floor space. Laying-battery plants have been installed in the heart of some of the larger cities in the country.

Therefore, this local display is most interesting, and anyone who is interested is invited to stop in and see it.

Mr. Kelley points out that every one who is engaged in raising poultry and producing eggs will find it worth while to stop in and see the pullets entered in this local egg-laying contest. It demonstrates how some poultrymen get a heavy production of eggs early in the fall when egg prices are highest.

Those furnishing poultry for the demonstration are: D. S. Bazzell, Farmington, Route 2; Galen White, Hazlet; Harlan Jetton, Murray, Route 4; Mrs. A. B. Lassiter, Murray, Route 5; J. E. Bazzell, Farmington, Route 2; Myrtle Wall, Hazlet; Herbert Underwood, Hazlet, and Kelley.

Stewart County Votes Local Option

Stewart County, Tennessee, beginning November 1, will be "dry" following action by the magistrates of that county last Monday.

Because of the increased pressure brought to bear upon them by the citizens of the county to do away with "immoral influences" now being exerted in that territory the magistrates, after lengthy debate voted beer out.

From now until November 1, "beer joints" must close their doors at 10 o'clock Saturday night, and stay closed until Monday morning at 8. Mr. J. M. Thomas, editor of the Model Star said.

Cumberland county farmers have bought 300 western ewes and many purebred rams to head flocks.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST TB IS PLANNED BY COUNTY GROUPINGS

M. O. Wrather Heads New Organization That Will Combat TB in County

SPEAKERS ARRANGED FOR COUNTY SCHOOLS

Chairman M. O. Wrather of the Calloway County Tuberculosis Preventive Association, announced this week that a three-fold program to combat the dread disease had been planned by the new organization, and that an active campaign had been planned to begin next week.

The first move the committee and group has made is to arrange for interesting and enlightening speakers for each school in Calloway County to acquaint all the students and people of the county with the disease. The dates of the speeches, time, and places, are listed below. Wrather urges each person in Calloway County to avail himself or herself of these opportunities and hear at least one of the lectures.

After this, there will be a program which will test each school child on anyone else in the county who desires it, to see if there is a TB germ active in the system. If these tests show positive, arrangements will be made for an x-ray.

Judge John W. Clopton is vice-chairman, and Mrs. Hugh Houston, secretary of the organization. A board of directors will be appointed soon.

A. V. Havens, Minister. The Abomination of Desolation will be the sermon subject of A. V. Havens, minister of the First Christian Church, at the morning worship service next Sunday morning. It will be the fifth in a series of sermons on religion and democracy being delivered as a contribution to the nation's defense effort. The series has been dealing with fundamental concepts which lie at the root of any defense system. The purpose of the series is to inspire an understanding and appreciation of the democratic way of life, thus bolstering national unity and resistance.

In speaking of next Sunday's sermon, Mr. Havens said, "When we recognize that the greatest danger to democracy is selfish individualism and that commitment to the will of God in seeking the welfare of the brotherhood of mankind is the only thing that can replace it, then we may ask what it will take to cause all people to commit themselves to the will of God. Drawing from the sayings of the prophets and the life of Jesus of Nazareth, this sermon will seek to answer that question," Mr. Havens stated.

The beautiful organ prelude by Mrs. Francis Coleman Johnson will begin promptly at 10:30.

The Inquest, will be the sermon subject at the Sunday night church service which will begin at 7:30.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will meet Sunday evening at 6:30, in the young people's parlor.

The Sunday School, led by Superintendent R. A. Wade, will meet Sunday morning at 9:30.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Sunday, October 20, 1940. This is HOME COMING Day at the Murray-Methodist Church, and having pastors who have served churches have been asked to be present in person or to send a word of greeting to the congregation. It seems that only six of the pastors who have served this church are still living. They are as follows: C. C. Bell, J. H. Felt, J. W. Waters, H. W. Davis, John O. Enser, and O. A. Wade. We had hoped to have some one of these preach for us at the morning hour. At any rate there will be messages of greeting from these pastors, and a short history.

Are you one of the many who suffer from the symptoms of malaria? A popular magazine recently said that four million persons suffer from malaria each year. If you have malaria and it is causing you to feel lazy, draggy and down and out. If your color is poor because of this disease and it is causing you to feel achy, stretchy, and generally no good, why not try Nash's. Many thousands of bottles are used each year for relief of the symptoms of malaria, occasional constipation and associated biliousness.

Every bottle is sold on Mr. Nash's money back guarantee. He says, "I don't want one cent of your money if Nash's C & L does not satisfy you. If after taking one week, you are not fully satisfied, go to my dealer and get your money back."

Racers Tie Conway 7-7 In Good Defensive Tilt

Murray State College's defense managed to do enough work for both itself and the Racetrack of Conway and the Thoroughbreds escaped with a 7-7 tie, here last Friday night with Conway, Ark. State Teachers Bears. The game, the first Murray home since the played before a FDEA crowd estimated at over 3000. Murray, with two ties and a loss, is still searching for a win.

The Bears, sporting the latest in streamlined football, went to town in the first period, their tricky reverses and bewildering end-arounds giving them an early lead. But after they scored Murray's line held brilliantly as it out-camped a heavier Arkansas forward wall.

The Bears, running on two cylinders for the first time in years, were functioning against Morehead, drove late in the fourth period, only to find time catching up with their running plays. The Bears, content to let Murray hold on in the first half, fielded dropped back and waited for passes that never came. Early in the third period, a beautiful pass from Inman to MacMurray who lateraled to Ferrara set up the Murray touchdown, but only one other pass was thrown in the second half by the Racers—that was intercepted.

A Murray fumble paved the way for the Conway touchdown. Grider, on the first Murray play from scrimmage fumbled, and an alert Bear tackle recovered. After trying to carry the ball over, a Murray hold on him, the Bears returned Perkins' punt to the 16, where Ellen, on an end-around play scored without passing a hand on him. MacGibbons' kick for the extra point was good.

Murray scored, with Ferrara going over from the 1-yard line after a pass from Inman, ace of the Stewart heavers, gave MacMurray an 11-yard pass in his vest pocket, and the big end later lured off to Ferrara who drove to the 12-yard line. With Ferrara driving the ball hard, Murray went over, and George Speth place-kicked the extra point.

At that time scoring stopped, as Murray's defense, with Roger Fuller and James Johnson leading the onslaught, reached new heights in diagnosing the Woodson-coached team's reverses. Only late in the ball game did Murray make any headway on the ground, and at this time the Bears were waiting on their haunches for forward passes.

Tigers Remember Cardinals; Tie Bullbogs 7-7 Thursday

Mediocre Playing Costs Bengals Flag Chance

A Fulton battling "beef-trust" the Bengals' playing record forced Murray High's Tigers for one short week the toast of the conference, to become somewhat "scorching" in a 7-7 tie in Fulton last Thursday night before over a 1,000 fans, most of them from Murray.

Their heads still swimming from the dazzling receptions given them since they won out over Mayfield 14-13, Murray High went out there and hearily swooned because of the plaudits. About midway in the third period the boys began to realize that what you've done before doesn't win ball games, but it was too late then, and only time saved them from defeat.

The Tigers grabbed the opening kick-off and seemingly got started in a hurry, marching to the Fulton 4-yard line, before a costly fumble gave the Bullbogs possession of the ball. Fulton's hands off the pigskin for the first time in the third period, before the center of Murray's line for a touchdown, a flashy 33-yard run by Merrymann carrying the ball into pay-dirt, McClellan's pass to Nelms was good for the extra point.

Murray brought the next kick-off right back, however, scored early in the second quarter on a beautiful 9-yard run by Williams after a lateral had set up the play. Williams kicked the extra point, and there the scoring ceased.

Try as the Bengals might, they just couldn't get their offense to function exactly as it should. With one of the boys "bustling signals" whenever in the line-up, two more backs on the sidelines with injuries, and another out of uniform indefinitely because he can't stand practice, the Hollanders' running gattack just wasn't going anywhere. Then, too, Fulton had a giant line. The were big, slow, and plenty rough.

When two great teams meet the best team always wins and

In Memory

In memory of the one we dearly loved—Lena Inez Cathcart, who passed away two years ago September 22.

The voice we loved is still I often sit and think of her As she lies in death's cold chill For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own. So we mourn for her in silence When we are all alone.

Our silent tears are often shed While others are asleep. We think of her and miss her When no eyes can see us weep. Oh what would I give to clasp her hand And hear her voice, to see her That meant so much to me.

Our family circle is broken A link has gone from our chain. We're parted for a while We soon shall meet again.

She will never be forgotten Thou on earth she lives no more But in memory she is with us As she always was before.

She gave no last farewells, She said goodbye to none. Her loving heart had ceased to beat Ere we knew that she was gone.

Precious girl how we loved you All the days you had to stay. And how sadly now we miss you Since you have gone away. Her mother, Mrs. Laura Cathcart

No Campaigning For "Happy" Now

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 17—An authoritative, aching and stubborn appendix which would not be denied, has removed U. S. Senator A. B. "Happy" Chandler from active participation in the Presidential campaign.

Stricken at his home last week, the Junior Senator was rushed to Lexington and an emergency operation performed. Today, his condition is good and his recovery is expected to be speedy. The month's enforced rest that will be required of him by physicians is expected to restore "Happy" to his usual good health and vigorous activity.

His sudden illness, however, did not a monkey wrench into arrangements that had been almost completed by the State Campaign organization. Chairman William F. Ardrey had expected that the burden of whatever speaking campaign was waged in the State, would be carried by the State's two Senators, Alben W. Barkley and "Happy."

With "Happy" a casualty and with Senator Barkley in demand as a speaker for the party in many doubtful states, a readjustment in plans will have to be made. It is expected, however, that Senator Barkley will make a number of major speeches in the State.

"Happy's" illness, to his own way of thinking, came at the most inopportune time. It was to have been his first campaign appearance since he had taken his seat in the United States Senate. All in all, he counted greatly on his participation in this campaign—he was

In memory of our dear little daughter and sister, Bonnie Lou Thomas who passed away May 7, 1940.

Dear Bonnie, days have gone by and still we miss you. Some may think the sorrow has healed, little do they know the sadness that lies within our hearts concealed. Tears in silence often flow; love shall always keep you near us though you left us five months ago.

All was done that human hands could do, not even our prayers could pull you through. We miss you more and more each day and still wonder why God called you away.

We think of you in silence, no eyes can see us weep, but many a silent tear we shed when others are asleep. You will never be forgotten though on earth you live no more, but in memory you are with us as you always were before.

Sleep on in peace, darling one, your earthly trials are through. Guide, guard and direct our footsteps there, so we may live with you—Mr. and Mrs. D. Thomas and son Chester.

anxious to renew old friendships and to give an accounting of his acts as a Senator.

As it is, Chandler will follow the campaign activities from a hospital bed, a wheel chair or during his convalescence at his home in Versailles. He is likely to make a radio talk during the closing days of the campaign and his many staunch admirers are hoping he will be able to make at least one major address at a public rally.

That startling 27-6 win Hopkingsville look from Mayfield last Friday night just about sewed up the West Kentucky Conference title in a bag and handed it to Coach Ralph Mills' athletes, as its two serious title threats, Murray High and Sturgis, were either tied or beaten.

It looks as if Hoptown, with one game still to play, will be Madisonville seriously threatening its title, but can annex it with ease, as neither the Tigers or the Maroons have outstanding clubs this year. Madisonville showed promise in its win over Coach Charles T. Yarbrough's Morganfield team last week, but its 19-16 problem is to stop Tommy Gray, who scored all four Hoptown touchdowns against the Birds Friday night.

Murray High missed a glorious chance to gain ground in the race, and possibly pull the title west of the river, by tying Fulton 7-7, as the Bulldogs fought their way inch of the way. Murray is now the Purchase's only hope, as an early crown, as Mayfield has been beaten twice.

Playing enough conference games to be eligible, and Fulton is virtually eliminated. With one game still to play, Green, Marion, Tilghman, and Russellville on their schedule. The Dickinson system, which is used to determine the class teams played, and it is probable that Murray will play more Class A teams than either Hoptown or Madisonville.

Teams that Murray play that will probably be in the Class A group are Mayfield, Fulton, Bowling Green, Tilghman and Russellville, as compared to Hoptown's Bowling Green, Mayfield, and Madisonville, and Madisonville's Hopkinsville, Owensboro, and Sturgis.

In this case it is entirely possible for Murray to lose to Tilghman but win from Bowling Green, Marion, and Russellville and still get the crown, provided Hoptown is either tied or defeated once.

A Class A team is a team that has a won and lost percentage of 500 or more.

Lynn Grove FFA News

The Lynn Grove FFA chapter met for its regular meeting Wednesday night, September 23. Because of the fact that we had not met since school started, we had a full program business.

The new officers presided for the first time since their election in July. The program consisted of a pep assembly, business, entertainment, and refreshments. The entertainment consisted of a trio by Billie Wilkins, Hassel Miller and Merrill Martin. Gene Ed Watson and Barkley Jones gave selections on the French harp.

We wish to extend our appreciation and thanks to Eugene Watson, Seed Store for the seed furnished the freshman and sophomore classes for an experiment lot.

For the past few weeks the chapter has planned to enter an extensive display of entries at the Calloway County Fair. The chapter was trying for the most blue ribbons. After all the entries were judged, Lynn Grove tied with Kirksey for the most blue ribbons. The total prize was $19.00.

The following boys won these prizes: L. D. Warren won a blue ribbon and $4.00 on a registered heifer. Blue ribbon and $1.00 on a registered Jersey heifer. One of the W. L. Gore heifers. Brent Manning won $3.00 for 3rd place on a Jersey bull. Barber Rogers won $1.00, first place on best quart of milk. Rex Armstrong $1.00, first on lima beans.

Billie Ray Miller, 50 cents, second place on best quart of milk. Gene Ed Watson and father won he also won first on the best trio $1.00, first premium on soybeans; of chickens, $3.00. He received 50 cents 3rd place on Irish potatoes. 50c, best quart of beets, second on wheat, 50c, 3rd on canned corn, 50c. For the best dozen Grimes Golden apples, 50c.

The fair seemed to create a vast interest among several of the boys. They are not determined to purchase better livestock and to grow better farm products.

A Pillow Speaks

My dear young man a heart you have broken.
For a passing thought so carelessly spoken.
"I do not believe there is love," you said.
And I must tell you of the tears she shed.

She loved you through the grades, she loved you yet, for you she would die.
In school you parted, as you had met.
Though years have passed she can't forget.

Years were her first love, and her years were few.
Yet, well I know her love was true.
It stayed through the years, unreturned you know.

Yet somehow it lived and managed to grow.
Nights after night through all these years.
I've held her head and dried her tears.

I hear her happiness when you are near.
When you are away I know her fear.
I know her dreams when she dreams of you.

Next day she arises with courage new.
I hear her prayers to God each night.
"Dear Lord, help me to win this fight."

Send him back to me once more, before our fleeting life is o'er.
Dear Lord, next to Heaven with him.
I pray for a little home with him.

If you could hear this through night and day,
Could you still honestly say,
"There is not love?"

Obituary

William J. Bryan Lax, son of the late J. E. J. and Minnie Lax, was born near Buchanan in Henry County, Tenn., March 1, 1897. He died at his home in Murray, Ky., Oct. 15, 1940, at the age of 43 years, 8 months, 15 days.

From childhood he was a moral, obedient and bright youth. He won the universal respect and friendship of all who knew him by his fine character, friendly manner, and honorable methods of dealing.

He joined the Blood River Church of Christ in early manhood. In 1921 he was married to Uda Strader, daughter of the late John C. and Houston Strader. Besides his grief-stricken widow, he leaves a mother, one sister and two brothers, and a host of relatives and friends.

They lived a few years after they were married on a farm near Buchanan, Tenn. Later they went to Detroit to make their home, where they were living at the time of his death.

He had been employed by the Chrysler Corporation for a number of years.

Funeral services were held at the Blood River Church of Christ by Rev. Charles Sweet, Church of Christ minister, and Rev. H. L. Lax, Methodist minister. Interment was in the Murray cemetery.

Flying Cadet Quota Topped In Army Fifth Corps Area

A quota-smashing September enrollment boosted the Fifth Corps Area's Army Flying Cadet recruiting drive over the top today for the first time since recruiting opened June 6.

Colonel S. G. Talbot, Corps Area Adjutant General, announced at Fort Hayes, O., that from June 6 to October 6 a total of 447 applicants qualified for Flying Cadet scholarships, which is 63 over the Corps Area quota for that period.

September's accepted Flying Cadets totaled 233, or more than double the monthly quota of 120 for the Fifth Corps Area's four States, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, and West Virginia. Colonel Talbot said. He termed it "by far the best month since Flying Cadet recruiting started."

An additional 120 Flying Cadets are sought from the four states during October, Colonel Talbot announced. He said applicants must be physically fit, male American citizens at least 20 years old and not yet 27 years old who can pass an educational examination. Two years of college exempt applicants from the examination.

Winners of Flying Cadet scholarships earn $75 a month during the nine months required to teach them to fly. In addition, they receive $1 a day for food, free lodging, uniforms and equipment. Upon graduation they are entitled to commissions as Second Lieutenants in the Army Air Corps Reserve and may go on active flying duty with salaries of $205 per month, plus living quarters.

Detailed information may be obtained at any Army Recruiting Station or by writing direct to the Air Officer, Fifth Corps Area Headquarters, Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio.

MURRAY ON ROAD AGAIN TO BATTLE EAST TEXAS STATE

Racers Will Meet Lions in Commerce Sat. Night; Leave for Texas Fri.

WORK ON OFFENSE FILLS THIS WEEK

Disatisfied with the fact that the Racers have been able to cross into pay-dirt but twice in their first three games, Coach Roy Stewart put Murray State's griders through intensive offensive drilling this week in an endeavor to have them ready for the important intersectional clash with East Texas State, in Commerce, Texas, Saturday night.

This will be the Thoroughbred's third and final intersectional game of the season, and will be a non-conference tilt. The Lions bested Murray 27-6 in Paducah last year.

Twenty-nine men, Trainer Fritz Webber, a manager, and the coaches will leave by auto early tomorrow morning for Commerce. They plan to spend Friday night in Texarkana, arriving there in time to take a light workout. Stewart plans to arrive in Commerce sometime Saturday morning. The return trip will be made Sunday.

The Bluebloods came out of the Conway game last week in good condition, and should be in top shape for the game Saturday night. Jack Dempsey and Cobble Lee, both out last week with injuries, have recovered enough to allow them to be used against the Texans, who boast of a wide-open attack.

In the Conway game, only Ferrara and Nannery really lived up to expectations in the running game. Murray's passing attack clicked, however, as long as Ferrara was in the game. To those who say that Murray hasn't an offense, Coach Stewart pointed out that it takes an offense to drive yards without any breaks for a touchdown, and that another drive was advancing the ball, only to have the whole effort nullified.

Bob Perkins, who suffered a slight concussion in the first half of last Friday night's game, has recovered and will start in the first starting assignment once more for the fullback position. He looked good before getting injured.

Injury will probably start the season with Wray at quarterback, and Levandoski at right half.

The Lions are reported to be just as strong as they were last year, still having Clint White, an outstanding running back, and the great line that placed them high in the Lone Star conference last season.

Two hundred farmers attended a pond-digging demonstration at the farm of Ogden Bros. in Clark county. A county committee offers recommendations on making ponds, dams and reservoirs, in an effort to have better water supplies on farms.
